This American Heart Association course is designed to prepare a wide variety of healthcare professionals to recognize several life-threatening emergencies and to provide CPR, use of AED, and relieve choking in a safe, timely and effective manner.

To register for CPR courses in Training Center Technologies: Less Stress, go to “Course Enrollment” and then click the button for “Enroll Now”.

Returning students can go to “Student Login” to access past and current courses.