Your application for financial aid was selected for review by the U.S. Department of Education in a process called verification. We will compare information from your FAFSA with your 2021 Federal tax return transcripts and this verification worksheet. In accordance with federal law, RACC must receive this information from you before disbursing federal aid. If there are differences between your FAFSA application and these documents, we will electronically correct your FAFSA.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding child support paid is not accurate, we may require additional documentation such as:

- A copy of the separation agreement or divorce decree that shows the amount of child support to be provided;
- A statement from the individual receiving the child support certifying the amount of child support received; or
- Copies of the child support payment checks or money order receipts.

SNAP BENEFITS (FOOD STAMPS)

Indicate yes or no if you and/or your spouse received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistant Program or SNAP (formerly known as food stamps) any time during the 2021 and/or 2022 calendar years.
