Print Books

The Yocum Library has hundreds of print books on Philosophy that you can check out of the library. Subjects include but are not limited to Ancient through Modern Philosophy, Logic, and Philosophers. Titles include Women Philosophers of the Early Modern Period, Classic Philosophical Questions, and Introduction to Aristotle. If you want to browse the collection on floor 3, the call numbers range from B through BD.

Print books circulate for four weeks and can be renewed if not requested by others.

E-Books

Our collection also includes 500+ E-books under “Philosophy” in EBSCOhost’s E-books. The Science of Logic, Origins of Responsibility, and Climate Ethics are a few.

Epictetus

Print books holdings are found by using the Yocum Library catalog. This catalog also contains the holdings of the Berks County Public Libraries.

College libraries have a collection of print books that are used just in the library. These books are called the “reference” or “research” collection. The Yocum Library research collection of philosophy books are on floor 2 near the Research Librarians’ offices. Titles include Encyclopedia of Philosophy, Latin American Philosophy for the 21st Century, and The World’s Great Philosophers.

DVDs

Next to the reference collection are the Philosophy DVDs. Titles include Is the Tall Man Happy?, Howard Zinn, and The Ascent of Man. These items may be checked out for 4 weeks.
