

Profession: Auctioneering

Program Description

RACC's Auctioneering Program provides comprehensive, hands-on training designed to prepare you for success and fulfills all the educational requirements needed to sit for the Pennsylvania State Auctioneer Licensing Exam. We equip students with real-world skills— from mastering the fast-paced auctioneering chant to gaining practical experience alongside professional auctioneers. With 80% of graduates earning their license and moving into the field with a competitive edge in the auction industry.

Quote:

My RACC degree and license have created opportunities to meet the right people for Contract Bid Calling and Auction opportunities. - Daniel Stoltzfus, Contract Auctioneer/Bright Star Auctions

What You Will Learn

- Learn the “Auctioneering Chant”
- Create appraisals for antiques, cars, livestock, etc.
- Learn about auctioneering law
- Learn about auctioneering software and online events
- 60 hours of hands-on observation with pro auctioneers

How long does the program take to complete?

Our Fall 10-week program runs from September 14 - November 18. Classes are held Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 9 AM - 4:30 PM. Scholarships are available to those who qualify.

What does this program cost?

The estimated cost of the program is $3,800 including books. Students will gain practical experience alongside professional auctioneers and become certified.

To learn more

Call 610.372.4721 x5120

Email Auria Bradley, Associate Vice President, Workforce and Continuing Education

At abradley@racc.edu